

Vale Donna Farkas

29th June 1966—9th October 2021

Inspector Leonie Fordyce forwarded the below message advising the passing of Ms Donna Farkas, that one of Community Supporting Police's truest friends and supporters, had passed away from injuries sustained in a car crash on Saturday the 9 October 2021.

"It is with sadness I advise you of the passing of one of our own at Safety and Wellbeing.

Ms Donna Farkas, a long serving AO3 in the QPS who has spent the past seventeen years supporting Chaplaincy as well Donna was a stalwart member of the National Police Remembrance Day Committee and Coordinator for the QPS/Community Supporting Police Emergency Accommodation. Donna is survived by her husband Ferenc who also suffered injuries in the crash but is expected to make a full recovery. Donna's passing is a loss to Chaplaincy, National Police Remembrance Day and Safety and Wellbeing. She quietly and resolutely went about her duties, loved giving of herself to others and had immense pride in her role as a committee member and the Community Supporting Police, Queensland Police Service Emergency Accommodation coordinator. Over the years Donna touched many people within the organisation and she will be sadly missed".

In 2017 Commissioner Ian Stewart awarded Donna the Commissioner's Certificate (Corporate Support) as recognition of her "exceeding expectations and in acknowledgment to her service to the chaplaincy unit and National Police remembrance Day events" <https://mypolice.qld.gov.au/news/2017/11/21/police-officers-recognised-commitment-service> (photo left)

CSP member Mr Peter Johnson joined with Donna's family, the QPS, her friends and colleagues to acknowledge and remember a very kind lady whose compassion touched the hearts and lives of hundreds of QPS members and their immediate families to access emergency accommodation in their time of need.

Donna is also remembered for her zest of life as those who were fortunate enough to enjoy Donna's company at the Chaplain's Conference fancy dress dinners can recall the efforts she went to arrange the event and the enthusiasm Donna brought to the night itself.

Rest in peace Donna,
thanks for *your assistance, support,
friendship, and for being part of our lives.*

THE WORKING CLASS MAN

I looked upon his photo, the happy, open grin
Taken, gone forever, by that vile, evil sin
Such kindness in his eyes that will never open again
His memory a haunting echo, of this man amongst men.

I thought about his Sharon, his treasured son Jack
His rocks, his life, his world, who always had his back
No more Sunday breakfasts, no laughter in the room
An empty chair, an empty bed and silence in the gloom.

He came to the job later, fulfilling a childhood dream
Helping others, everyone's mate, the lifeblood of the team
From fixing cars to fixing society, always seeing the good
Dave Masters did what he could, and what the rest of us should.

He loved the Mounted Unit and the beauty of a horse's soul
He and Manny rode together, for years on patrol
The ancient bond between human and horse, timeless and unspoken
And when Manny passed away, Dave's big heart was broken.

He found his way to Deception Bay, and was soon the heart of the station
Always up for a laugh and a joke, and some after shift libation
V8 supercars, Jimmy Barnes, and laughs around the fire
“The Working Class Man” and a police officer to admire.

It was a Friday nightshift, on the 25th of June
Always a busy one, they come around too soon
Dave shared a joke with young Zac, as the magazines clicked into place
They headed out to face the night, another shift at the coalface.

A run of jobs, blues and people in distress
They talked about Dave's favourite music, Barnesy, Cold Chisel and INXS

The call came over, a stolen car and stingers authorised
"We're proceeding code 2 with stingers," Dave and Zac advised.

They set up at a bridge, along the Bruce Highway
The vehicle thundered towards them, no time for delay
Dave saw them coming and grabbed the stingers ready
With murder in her black heart, the driver's aim was deadly.

The criminal accelerated suddenly, Dave had nowhere to go
She altered course, straight at Dave, delivered the fatal blow
She never braked, she never stopped, she didn't give a damn
She took a Father, husband, and a mate, she took our wonderful man.

Dave and Zac did everything right, in a night gone wrong
He was gone in an instant, not painful and prolonged
He had no chance to think of the future that was taken
Family, friends and grandchildren, everything forsaken.

The phones were ringing early, televisions were switched on
The blue line came together, we couldn't believe he was gone
Our family gathered around Dave's family, in a safe cocoon of love
We sought comfort where it was, or in the bottle or God above.

In our sombre lines of blue, we all gather together
Our national day of remembrance, every September forever
The piper haunts our wounded hearts with his lonely refrain
We look ahead stoic and silent, hiding all our pain.

Remember Dave, remember him well, remember our others lost
They stood bravely, served with honour and payed the ultimate cost
Be proud of what we do, keep fighting the good fight
We'll do what we've always done and we'll keep doing it right.

By Tim Beard, Moreton DDO.

President's Christmas message 2021

Well another year has almost passed with COVID-19 still at the forefront of our minds. Although there have been a number of lockdowns and other restrictions throughout the year, I am pleased to report that Community Supporting Police Inc. (CSP) has, in conjunction with the Queensland Police Service (QPS) and with the aid of our sponsors been able to provide emergency welfare accommodation for members of the QPS requiring assistance.

The Chaplaincy Unit coordinates the requests for emergency welfare accommodation and it is with sorrow that we acknowledge the death of Donna Farkas Administrative Officer Level Three (AO3) on 9 October 2021. Donna worked tirelessly over seventeen years as liaison between the Chaplaincy Unit and members of the QPS seeking support. Donna will be remembered fondly and she is sadly missed.

The CSP Annual General Meeting was held on the 8 September 2021 and we welcome Inspector Jason Overland as a new member of the Management Committee.

The Executive:

President — Mr Dan Mahon APM

Vice President and Facilities Manager (Windsor) - Mr Bryan Brown AM

Treasurer and Members Registrar — Mr Victor Serchen

Secretary and Branch Liaison — Mrs Cecelia Serchen.

Appointees:

Police Liaison — Inspector Jason Overland

Police Chaplaincy Representative — Reverend Doug Foster

Helping Hand Fund Representative — Ms Nadene Sander.

Portfolio Holders:

Blue Ribbon Committee Representative — Mr Col Diachkoff

Emergency Accommodation Coordinator and Brisbane Cleaner — Mrs Peggy Campbell

Event Coordinator (Brisbane) - Mrs Cecelia Serchen

Marketing and Promotions Officer - Ms Deborah Nicholson APM

Merchandise Officer and Brisbane Police Beat Liaison - Ms Colleen MacCarthy.

Inspector Jason Overland has taken over from Inspector Leonie Fordyce as the Police Commissioner's Liaison Officer. Leonie contributed in excess of four years as the Commissioner's Liaison Officer and made a significant contribution to the management committee and members of the QPS. She will be missed and I welcome Jason aboard to continue the important role of liaison between the QPS and CSP.

The Branch Committees based in Toowoomba, Rockhampton, Townsville and Cairns also held their respective elections. I thank all the management committee members and regional committee members for their unstinting support, efforts and advice throughout the year and into the future.

Since the Spring 2021 newsletter CSP members attended the Bribie Island Combined Emergency Expo held on 17 October 2021. It was a magnificent day for all attendees and there were plenty of demonstrations of our emergency services expertise. From a sales perspective, CSP had a great day selling $3752 worth of merchandise of which we made about $1500 profit to contribute to the upkeep of emergency welfare accommodation.

CSP members will be attending Police Headquarters on the 1 December 2021 and also the Carols in the Queen Street Mall from the 1 until the 3 December 2021 to sell merchandise. It is a relief that we can finally reengage with people to raise much needed funds to continue our work.

A number of projects were commenced during 2021, two of which are the update of the CSP website and the maintenance and refurbishment of five units in Brisbane. The website is well overdue to be modernised and this is occurring with the specialist input from Spyda Web Hosting and Management Committee members who have been working tirelessly. We are expecting the new website will be released in early 2022. (cont. pg. 5)

In respect of the units in Brisbane, we have liaised with members of QPS Capital Assets to progress painting and reflooring of the units which is currently being assessed. During the last month Deborah Nicholson, Peggy Campbell and Peter Johnson have undertaken working bees to remove old furnishings and make the units look spic and span. Furniture, bedding and other household goods have been purchased to update the units in the vicinity of the Royal Brisbane Hospital.

I wish everyone a merry Christmas and happy New Year for 2022. The Management Committee is looking forward to working with the branch committees, other CSP members, the QPS, sponsors and members of the public to make 2022 a year of positive gains for CSP and continue our ability to support those in need.

We are always looking for good people to join CSP and assist in any way they can to support members of the QPS. Please consider work colleagues, friends or family members who you think would like to join a great organisation and support our QPS.

Stay safe and well.

Young owner of stolen pup meets Police Dog Beau

by Senior Constable Jo Arthur

In August, seven year old Xavier had his Brittany Spaniel known as 'Blue Bell' ('Blue' for short) stolen from her home.

Caboolture Police have been busy conducting extensive investigations to locate her during which time they invited Xavier to the Police Station, where he met one of the Queensland Police's "very special Police Dogs 'Beau'" and his handler Senior Constable Grace".

At the same time the Caboolture Police also gave Xavier 'Dash' the plush pup which was proudly donated by Community Supporting Police.

Although we know that Dash won't make up from the loss of "Blue" the members of the Caboolture Police hope that "being able to give him a hug provides a small amount of comfort".

Blue (pictured right) is the assistance dog of a seven year old Bellmere boy, Xavier. She is his beloved new friend who has been working to help him with his anxiety. She was to start her intensive training in September.

In the short few months that Blue had been in his life she had already worked out how to make him smile.

Police from Caboolture executed a search warrant at a Bellmere address on August 30th and charged an elderly woman with stealing.

Unfortunately Blue was not located at the address.

Wall to Wall riders blessed and on their way

Senior Constable Jo Arthur

On 16 September over 140 motorcycle riders attended the Moreton District Headquarters in Caboolture as part of the 2021 Wall to Wall ride.

The riders gathered in possession of a handcrafted baton that contains the names of our fallen officers. Sadly on of our own, Senior Constable Dave Masters name was added this year and today we had the opportunity to honour him once again

Police Chaplains Ian Todd and Matt Govan were there to bless the riders before they headed off on their journey, travelling to Emerald.

The national Wall to Wall ride involves police from all over the country who annually meet in Canberra for National Police Remembrance Day. Last year, the ride was cancelled and this year's border closures necessitate a modified trip, keeping our riders here in Queensland.

Blue Hope were in attendance to cook up breakfast for the riders. We appreciate their continued support of current and former officers all around Australia.

If you are a Queensland Police Service employee in need of support please contact your local QPS Chaplain or CSP Branch (contact details below)

If you would like to attend your local CSP Branch meeting or become a CSP member please contact your local QPS Chaplain or CSP Branch representative.

Christmas is the time of year when families and friends embark on long journeys to visit loved ones, hence Queensland families are packing for boating, camping, fishing, 4WD and motorcycle riding trips.

Police want to remind road users that road safety is paramount, especially during the holidays when there are extra road users utilising busy roadways during their travels.

Before taking off on your holiday adventures consider the following:

- Ensure that your entire vehicle is appropriately serviced, with plenty of fuel, oil and water.
- Check the weather forecast and road conditions prior to travelling, seasonal rain sometimes arrives un-expectedly and suddenly.
- Plan your travel route and pack supplies appropriately for length and stay of travel.
- Research your route. Those travelling to the Far North and Far West for the first time should be knowledgeable about unsealed and dusty roads in our region and ensure their vehicle is capable.
- Please also consider weather conditions and their effects on rivers, creeks and other crossings
- If it is Flooded Forget It!!

Queensland Police implore road users to make sure they plan for fatigue management during their travels, and for motorcycle riders to take extra precautions particularly during the holidays.

Police will be utilising photographic technology to enforce seatbelts and mobile phone use and other Fatal Five offences.

Police urge the community to familiarise themselves and remember the Fatal Five:

1. Think before you drink – don't drink or drug drive.
2. Slow down and stick to the speed limits.
3. No seatbelt – no chance.
4. Driver fatigue can be fatal – rest and revive regularly.
5. Avoid distractions – no mobile phones! Pay attention to the job at hand, driving.

Get the facts on Queensland's most dangerous behaviours behind the wheel.

Remember the FATAL FIVE

DRINK AND DRUG DRIVING

DRINK DRIVING

More than 1 in 4 drivers and riders killed on Australian roads have a blood alcohol content exceeding the legal limit.

DRUG DRIVING

Drug use increases the risk of being involved in a crash, the risk is similar to driving with blood alcohol of up to 0.15%.

MEDICATION

Almost 1 in 4 Australian drivers ignore medication warning labels and continue to drive after taking prescription drugs. Some medications can impair your ability to drive.

SPEEDING

Speeds just 5km/h over the speed limit in urban areas and 10km/h in rural areas are enough to double the risk of a crash.

SEATBELTS

Unrestrained drivers and passengers are 8 times more likely to be killed in a road crash.

DISTRACTION

Using a mobile phone while driving is highly distracting and increases your risk of a crash four-fold, even when using a hands-free kit.

FATIGUE

A driver who has been awake for 17 hours has a driving ability similar to a driver with blood alcohol concentration of 0.05.

Acting Sergeant Tammy White, (left) from the Pine Rivers Patrol Group Crime Prevention unit, has been out and about at Bunnings and local coffee shops promoting crime prevention for the month of October.

Tammy has been highlighting offences such as: the unlawfully entering and stealing from motor vehicles, opportunistic break and enters and offenders using remote controls from un-garaged cars to gain entry to houses are common offences.

Unfortunately, vehicles being left unlocked or screen doors not being key locked and /or garage door remotes are being left in un-garaged cars, thus allowing opportunistic offenders to gain access.

Preventing the opportunity for these types of crime is the most prevalent way to avoid becoming a victim. Please remember to:

- 1) Lock and secure your vehicles and your homes.
- 2) Do not leave valuables or your garage remote in your vehicle.

With your help we can reduce the chance of opportunist crimes occurring.

Senior Constable Jo Arthur advises that "As well as responding to crime when it happens, Queensland Police Service (QPS) works with communities to prevent crime and make Queensland a safer place to live, work and play.

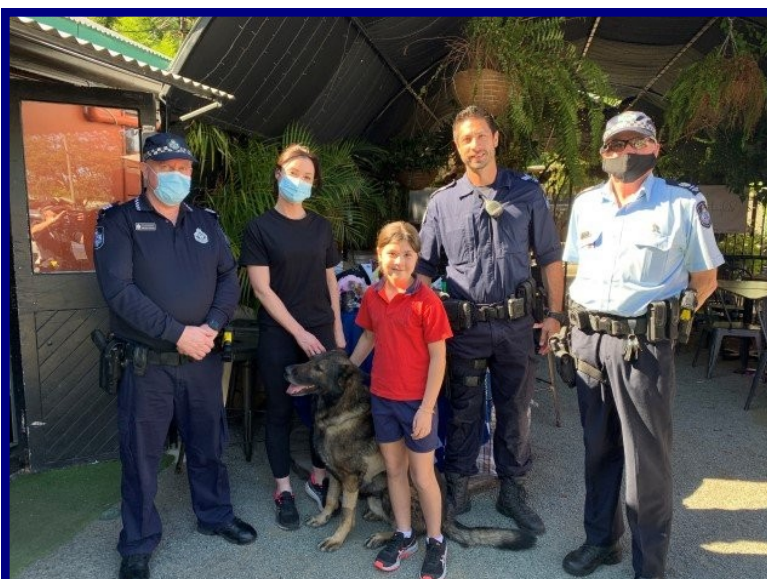

The QPS's crime prevention policies, strategies and programs are guided by the National Crime Prevention Framework developed by the Australian Institute of Criminology.

The QPS website outlines some of the programs QPS has to help people in Queensland stay safer, address anti-social behaviours and reduce crime.

We work together with government, businesses, community groups and individuals to deliver these programs.

The Australian Government has partnered with Crime Stoppers Australia to launch a permanent national firearms amnesty to keep Australians safe while ensuring those with a legitimate need to access firearms are able to do so.

People who have an unregistered firearm or firearm-related item will be able to surrender it to a police station anonymously and without penalty, for registration, sale or destruction.

Licensed firearms dealers can also receive surrendered firearms in most states and territories. An unwanted firearm may also be handed in.

To support the commencement of the amnesty, Crime Stoppers has launched a National Illicit Firearms Campaign.

In coming months, Crime Stoppers will deliver 65 grassroots community events across the nation to encourage people to do the right thing and hand in unwanted or unregistered firearms.

Each state and territory have their own requirements about what can be surrendered, registered or sold. <https://crimestoppers.com.au>

Bureau of Meteorology Senior Meteorologist Laura Boekel said Queenslanders should keep up to date with the latest warnings and forecasts on the Bureau's website and the BOM Weather Smartphone app. "We want people to 'know your weather, know your risk' – and that means understanding not just what kind of severe weather can impact the area you live in, but the hazards associated with it and what you need to do to avoid getting hurt," Ms Boekel said. <https://statements.qld.gov.au/statements/93474>

"But we always get through them, digging deep and working shoulder to shoulder as communities recover from these events." "Our emergency services staff do an amazing job helping us out in our times of need so it's important we show them they can count on us," Mr Ryan said. <https://statements.qld.gov.au/statements/93474>

Community Supporting Police Inc

Support those ...who support you

Community Supporting Police Inc (CSP) is a community driven organisation which is devoted to raising funds to provide comfort and support to members of the Queensland Police family in times of crisis and or trauma.

Since its inception in 1991, CSP has continued to raise funds to provide emergency accommodation to hundreds of QPS families who have required assistance. Requests for assistance are made through the Police Chaplaincy Unit or Human Services Officer.

Membership is $20 per year

Helping Hand is a registered charity and is a sub-committee of CSP. Helping Hand provides financial assistance and a communication network to members of the QPS families affected by serious illness or personal trauma.

QPS members can make tax deductible donations to Helping Hand through their payroll
